GEN. REYES WATCHED BY TWO GOVERNMENTS

Despite Denials of Connection With Revolutionary Movement, Mexican General Is Kept Under Surveillance

New Orleans, Oct. 6.—Notwithstanding Gen. Bernardo Reyes' denial of any connection with the revolutionary forces against Mexico, he is kept under surveillance by both the United States and the Mexican and American governments.

"I don't mind these spies," said Gen. Reyes. "In fact, because of the great misrepresentations of myself, that have been broadcast throughout the United States I welcome the espionage of the Washington government."

He agreed with Mr. Rice. Dr. Brundell of Lopez thinks that the United States is making a mistake in watching Gen. Reyes.

In regard to the worm that is now doing the cutting, State board of education with the 20 publishers who look books have been adopted for use in the schools of the State.

"Under the text-book contract of the South Carolina State board of education with the 20 publishers who look books have been adopted for use in the schools of the State."

"Any old book that can be recognized as a text-book is eligible for consideration by the board of education. The number of missing leaves, should not be taken into consideration."

"The central text-book department should call each publisher within three days after the receipt of any notice in the delivery of books owing, and the publisher should be notified of the superintendent of education, the date of delivery and the number of books omitted in the shipment from Columbia. A copy of the contract should be sent to the publisher."

"Any exchange should be promptly reported to the State superintendent of education. There is a heavy demand for the new adoptions, and this demand will probably increase during the year. The superintendent of education in supplying the needs of the schools will make the moving picture board and will render a service to the State by clearing up the text-book situation."

"The following letter has been sent out by Mr. Swearingen: 'Today I am shipping you express order all each order within three days after the receipt of any notice in the delivery of books owing, and the publisher should be notified of the superintendent of education, the date of delivery and the number of books omitted in the shipment from Columbia. MADDDING THROUGH TO PASS ON FILM

BIG STREET SCENE A FEATURE

Committed Under Columbia Ad Club Plan. Considered arrangements for Important Event.

"Today is 'moving picture day' in Columbia. At high noon moving pictures will be taken on moving picture street in the city. A committee from the Columbia Ad club has been organized to make the moving picture public buildings and places of interest in the vicinity. A committee from the Columbia Ad club has been organized to make the moving picture public buildings and places of interest in the vicinity."

"The committee has visited the merchants of dealers and requested that the window displays be placed in readiness for the visit of the machine men who will make the moving picture film of Columbia. The 'moving picture' man will pass down one side of the street turning the crank of his trusty machine that allows nothing to be lost. The picture will be on the other side taking the sights there."

"After taking the two sides of Main street the moving picture machine will be placed on the corner opposite the National Loan and Exchange building, where the passing through will be taken. It is urged that every one who can do so be on the street at 11 o'clock and pass the corner where the machine is located so that as large a crowd as possible may be included in the picture. The moving picture machine will pass the corner opposite the National Loan and Exchange building and other vehicles will appear while the machine is operating. The moving picture will be shown in Columbia, and at the State fair moving picture of many sections of the State will be shown. The film showing Columbia will be the property of the Columbia Ad club, and the exhibition at the fair will be by the authorized Ad clubs of the State."
