

BROKEN BLOSSOMS
HERE FOUR DAYS

Latest Griffith Picture at Rivoli Theater.

In D. W. Griffith's masterpiece, "Broken Blossoms" at the Rivoli theater, four days commencing tomorrow, there are some striking scenes showing the picturesque China that the poor Chang Huan knew before he left the land of plum blossoms to settle down in the muck of Yvangelia and the dock district of London East End. One of these scenes shows a kindly old Mandarin who stops his kindly old Chinese maid to distribute sweets and "cash" to a boy of eight dressed like a Chinese man. Story of Spanish Prince's Marriage to Princess Victoria Eugenie in Hooted. POLES COMPLETE
CRIME HISTORY

Story of Atrocities by Bolsheviki.

WARSAW, Sept. 16 (City Mail)—The Polish government is compiling the story of the atrocities committed under the Bolshevik reign in the city of Minsk, now occupied by the Poles. The latest brought by an American Red Cross worker who has just returned from a relief assignment in that town, further increase the number of a woman hospital assistant who was rash enough to express the hope that she would be able to convert the number of the taking down her opinion, was shot into a grave on the day after the taking of the city by the Polish army.

When visited by workers of the American Red Cross commission to Poland, the hospitals and orphanages of the city were found in such a state of decay that many of them had been obliged to close without as much as a coffin for the dead. Many others had suffered similar fates. In some instances, only outside aid could be secured, and in many cases of terror and suffering in which they are helpless.
