

AUDITORIUM, LIBRARY DEDICATED AT HOSPITAL

Benet Auditorium, left, and Horger Library, right, were dedicated at Sunday ceremonies at the South Carolina State Hospital. (Record photo by McGrail.)

BYRNES INSPECTS LIBRARY

Former Gov. James F. Byrnes, dedication speaker at ceremonies formerly opening two new buildings at the State Hospital, inspects the new Horger Library. Left is Hospital Supt. Dr. William F. Hall, right is George A. Buchanan Jr., chairman of the State Mental Health Commission. (Record photo by McGrail.)

HORGER AND BENET FAMILIES AT DEDICATION

Families of the men for whom Benet Auditorium and Horger Library at the State Hospital are named were present at the dedication of the buildings Sunday. Left to right, seated, Mrs. Christie Benet, and Mrs. E. L. Horger, widows of the former chairman of the Board of Regents and of a former clinical director of the hospital, respectively; and, standing, Dr. George Benet, brother, and Mrs. Porcher Hopkins, daughter, of the late Christie Benet; and Dr. E. L. Horger Jr., son of the late Dr. Horger. (Record photo by McGrail.)

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS CEREMONIES AT STATE HOSPITAL—A portion of the crowd which attended dedication ceremonies yesterday of the Benet Auditorium and Horger Library at the Columbia Division of the South Carolina State Hospital is shown above. At the time of the photograph Dr. William S. Hall, superintendent, is addressing the audience. (Staff Photo—McGrail)