PAINTINGS PRESENTED TO LIBRARY

Mrs. Georgia Ferry's copies of game and song bird pictures are well known and admired. The gracious generosity of her time and skill has been a source of pleasure to many during her stay in the hospital. Pictured above are two of the six paintings she recently completed and contributed to the new Hospital Library.

The paintings add greatly to the charm and inviting atmosphere of the patients' reading room and are deeply appreciated by the Superintendent, Dr. William S. Hall, and the librarian for the pleasure they will afford through the years to all who use the library.
